

Kathy Tonokawa

Rancho Santa Margarita, CA

Digital learning is a major focus for our school in preparing students to be leaders for the future.

The E-Rate program has been instrumental in allowing us to plan for the future at our school, but all students need access to high-speed broadband. I respectfully urge the FCC to increase funding for the E0-Rate program to at least $5 billion to meet this demand.